The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a pretentious volume, in order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to the imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit debtors, but unfortunate debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed by the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, a register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition and, when filed is the commencement of proceedings in bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any stuff or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petitions and schedules and, if correct, and if they are correct in form, issues a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then addrain to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over. On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from interest or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10. As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $500; five hundred dollars, also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864. A safe Counsel or suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11. It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to advertise the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it be filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register, as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, eo. in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes, as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debt or liability to apply for Bankruptcy after 1867 will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

The above is a fair specimen of the kind of ballot to be cast at the approaching election by the Conservatives.

WHENEVER the unfortunate X. P. G. gets desperate, he implores the Military to do something. This fact has become so notorious, that whenever Holden invokes military interposition, people at once laugh and say "he has given up—he confesses himself beaten!" Having abandoned the canvass, after, without exception, the feeblest attempt at stumping and the slimmest audiences on record, he has returned to relieve the boys who were running the editorial machine so awkardly. About the first thing he does is to invoke the Military to remove the Hon. Josiah Turner, from the Presidency of the North Carolina Railroad, which he has managed with great ability, efficiency and acceptability, for no other reason than that Mr. Turner, in the exercise of an undoubted right, is addressing the people in opposition to the ruinous and wicked purposes of the Radical party. It is true that he is particularly severe upon the X. P. G., but it is the height of presumption for Holden to suppose that Gen. Canby is bound to espouse all of his quarrels. "I am the State," said Louis XV. "I am North Carolina—I am the Republican party—I am the United States government,"—quoth the X. P. G.! How silly and puerile! There is no truer man to the Government, in North Carolina, than Josiah Turner, and his Union record is a thousand times more consistent and fair than Holden's.

What amuses the people most at the X. P. G's childish appeals to the Military, is that they are so fitly appreciated as never to receive any consideration.

He has, time and again, pitcously begged Gen. Canby to remove Gov. Worth.

He begged Gen. Canby to appoint Tourgee a Judge, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge Fowle.

He begged Gen. Canby to appoint Harris Mayor of Raleigh.

He begged Gen. Canby to appoint a new Board of Commissioners for Raleigh—one negro for each Ward.

And so it is, whenever the X. P. G. sets himself up as the embodiment of "loyalty," and the great Mongrel of Republicanism, the Military smile, the people laugh audibly, and the X. P. G. is known to be in a strait. Let him keep cool. He will probably not be beaten much worse than Vance beat him in 1864 or Gov. Worth beat old Gen. Dockery in 1866!

THE TARBORO Southerner learns that the Loyal Leaguers at Rocky Mount had a glorious time of it one night last week.—Such wool-pulling and gouging never were seen before. The venerable President of the concern was relieved of about three inches of loyal flesh from his face, and a general consternation reigned supreme.—"When rogues fall out,"—the rest of the quotation is familiar.

SHALL WHITE MEN BE ENROLLED in the MILITIA with NEGROES,—perhaps under negro officers? That is one of the issues.

AFRICANIZING THE SOUTH.

How long will the white Southern people shut their eyes upon the signs of the times? The Yankees are a shrewd race.—The Radical portion are utterly unscrupulous, and stop at nothing in accomplishing their designs. What are their designs, respecting the African race? The persistent refusal of the Northern States to accord to the negroes there the political privileges they seek to give them here, has a portentous meaning. They love the African—at a convenient distance. He is an eye-sore at home, a blot and a scandal. How to get rid of him is the question. Our troubles have made it of easy solution.

There he is denied political rights. Let a government be established where he is equal, and even superior to the Saxon race, and then let the screws be applied to him at his Northern home; let him be scornfully refused all participation in governmental affairs, and only feel it by the taxes and social and political ostracism that he cannot escape. And then let him be told of the happy land way down in the sunny South, where he will have the pleasure of laying the taxes, and the subject whites the honor and pleasure of paying them; where millions are to be thus raised annually, and where much of this money will go into his purse; where he can control the educational, social and other institutions of that happy land, according to his own tastes, and for the special benefit of his own preferred race; where he may have unlimited choice among the fairest daughters of that Eden and where, provided he can coax one to come to his arms and his bridal couch, there is no one there who can make him afraid, or forbid the bans, or refuse him a license, but at the hazard of a military visitation—arrest and a possible imprisonment at hard labor, for fifteen years, at Fort Macon or the Dry Tortugas; where the African race, now subsisting at the North by sufferance, as despised Pariahs and outcasts, cabined, cribbed and confined in their comfortless homes, by an easy translation to this Southern Paradise incontinently expand into eminent statesmen, patriots, and dusky nabobs of untold wealth! Let these untutored, half-civilized, wandering Arabs be told how great, how free, how caressed they will suddenly be, on crossing the Potomac, their river Jordan, which alone separates them from the promised land—and how long will they stay where they are!—How long will they cling to their inhospitable homes, and to the cold, charities of that cold hearted, calculating people!—Wave after wave of the dark flood will roll over our fair land. They will come trooping by thousands to the land of hope and promise, where they are assured of rights suilenly and scornfully denied them at home; and a new St Domingo will mark the spot where North Carolina once stood in her glory!

The Northern people have long been perplexed with their free negroes, and have fallen, at last, on this, as a feasible outlet to the unwelcome hordes who have infested their borders. They have cunningly determined to hold the black man uneasy in his Northern home, to deny him, while there, all political rights, to press him down without mercy and without end. But in return the political schoolmaster is abroad, and he is carefully instructed, that there is preparing for him down South a blessed country, where his is to be the ruling color. Those who are able become pioneers, perhaps, at their own expense. The lame and the halt and the blind, aided by a stinted charity, will be hobbling along soon. Then will come ship loads of the ragged, the drunken, the lazy and the lousy, sent on at Government expense. It will be a happy riddance, a notable scheme to accomplish a desirable end. But great Heaven! who are we? What are we? and what have we done that we must be shamed, cursed, with white men among us, sons of our own soil, who know these designs to convert our loved country into another Hayti, and give them their advocacy and aid? Are they men? Have they the souls of men? When before did high men,—once deemed honorable and true men,—ever join in a crusade against their own kith and kin, so wild, so reckless, so utterly and intensely diabolical! Who ever before, with words of peace on his lips, so malignantly plotted to change the blooming beautiful Garden of earth, into a pestiferous African desert!

There are some men—Heaven help them!—mad, ambitious men, among us, on whom an appeal would be lost. We have no words to waste upon them. But does it become Wm. B. Rodman, Thomas Settle, Robt P. Dick, and some others, whose early record was honorable, to sacrifice all their old friends, and at last themselves, and those who bear their names, and their own blood, to this horrid Moloch? Do they deceive anybody? Can they deceive themselves? Everybody knows, that they have taken the African plunge for office—worse than that, for the poor pitiful hope of office—and for nothing else. And for this, they have "filed their souls," and covenanted to lend their aid to the shameless scheme of making this old State the special rendezvous—a grand gathering place—for all the lost tribes of Congoes and others now wandering over the Northern States in filth and hopeless degradation. They consent to stand on the borders, and to welcome, with outstretched arms, and profane parodies of the grand old Anthem, ("Sound the loud timbrel,") the black hosts, expelled by disfranchisement from their old homes. They even send words of cheer and greeting to the Northern Radicals, as they push out from themselves thousands upon thousands of these tawny refugees, who come here in search of political and social rights, which they are taught are secured to them here by Constitutional guaranty, to which they have never been admitted there. Do not these men know that certain Yankees are using them, to build up a Hayti here, for their own convenience?—Have they not seen it, plain as the noses on their several faces? And yet, for this sorry, very sorry, mess of pottage, they will sell old North Carolina—the mother that bore them, and nursed them at her pure white Saxon breast—to be miscegenated, prostituted, degraded, with a second St. Domingo Republic, or Empire, or a mixture of both, with Cuffee Mayo, or some other equally eminent and honest son of Africa, peradventure from Ohio or Connecticut, sitting on the imperial throne; and we white men—merciful Father!

"Are ye men?—and will ye suffer this?"

GEN. MEADE'S ORDER.

Our telegram, on yesterday morning, announced that Gen. Meade, in order to secure fairness in the election, has ordered that the poll holders in Georgia shall not open the ballot boxes, nor count the votes, nor give any information in regard to the voting, until the election is ended; after which, they shall choose two gentlemen, one from each party, who are to be present at the counting of the votes, so as to witness and verify the counting.

Such a course appears to us absolutely necessary to prevent suspicions of fraud and unfair dealing by either side, and we have been anxious that Gen. Canby should issue a similar order. This has been a uniform custom in the South. Poll holders and judges of elections have always been selected from the opposing parties, in order to prevent fraud or the suspicion of it. It is possibly too late for Gen. Canby to make the order, but is it not proper and just, that the poll holders, &c., throughout the State, for their own protection, should call in reliable gentlemen of both parties to witness the counting?

UP, GUARDS, AND AT THEM!"

The white people of the State are thoroughly aroused. A full vote will give the Conservatives a glorious victory. The Radicals are discouraged and despondent, yet they are working like beavers. They are rallying the Leagues, and hence the Conservatives should exert themselves to break up the Leagues. The Conservatives are opposed to secret political organizations. We are opposed to all of them, of every grade, and in every party. We neither affiliate with Leagues, Red Strings, nor Ku Klux Klans. As to the latter, we believe it a myth, a raw-head-and-bloody bones, that has no other but an imaginative existence. We are for an open contest—a full vote AND AN HONEST VOTE. Let the contest be pressed, TILL THE LAST VOTE IS CAST!"

THE SALISBURY Old North State says that Frick, one of the Radical candidates in Rowan, has been teaching his dupes from Rodman's address, and never knew it was not a part of the Constitution until he accidentally met with Major Robbins, Conservative candidate for the Senate, a few days ago, on the stump. The Major exposed the cheat before a large collection of people, and Mr. Frick was very indignant that the pamphlet had been fixed up in such a manner as to deceive anybody. He wanted Mr. Robbins to tell him what business Rodman's address had there; but the Major left it to the people to decide that question.

FALLSTAFF'S RAGGED REGIMENT.

"If I be not ashamed of my soldiers, I am a souced gurnet. I have misused the——press damnably. I have got in exchange of a hundred and fifty soldiers, three hundred and odd pounds. I pressed me none but such a commodity of warm slaves, as had as lief hear the devil as a drum; such as fear the report of a caliver worse than a struck fowl, or a hurt wild-duck. I pressed me none but such toasts and butter, with hearts in their bellies no bigger than a pin's head; and now my whole charge consists of ancients, corporals, lieutenants, gentlemen of companies, slaves as ragged as Lazarus in the painted cloth, when the glutton's dogs licked his sores; such as indeed were never soldiers, but discarded, unjust serving men, revolted tapsters, and ostler's trade fallow; the cankers of a calm world and a long peace; ten times more dishonorable ragged than an old faced ancient; (i. e., an old patched Standard) and such have I to fill up the room of them that bought their services, that you would think that I had a hundred and fifty tattered prodigals, lately come from swine keeping, from eating draff and husks. A mad fellow met me on the way, and told me I had unloaded all the gibbets, and pressed the dead bodies. No eye hath seen such scare-crows. I'll not march through Coventry with them—that's flat. Nay, and the villains march wide betwixt the legs, as if they had gyves on; for indeed I had most of them out of prison. There's but a shirt and a half in all my company, and the half shirt is two napkins, tacked together, and thrown over the shoulders, like a herald's coat without sleeves; and the shirt, to say truth, was stolen from my host at St. Alban's, or the red-nosed inn-keeper of Daintry. But that's all one; they'll find linen enough on every hedge. Gad, I'm as vigilant as a cat to steal cream. Pitiful rascals! Tut, tut; good enough to toss; food for powder, food for powder. They'll fill a box as well as better folk. Tush! mortal men, mortal men—only a little too beggarly."

THE MASS MEETING AT CHARLOTTE.—Judging from the glowing descriptions in the Charlotte papers, the Mass Meeting of White Men in that City was a glorious affair. The special telegram, kindly furnished us, at the time, by a friend in Charlotte, gave a fair idea of the grand and enthusiastic rally. The Times says, in concluding its interesting account:

"Having been arranged, the procession commenced its march. From every quarter fireworks were seen rising high in the air, illuminating the dark blue vault of night. Nearly every house in which a white spirit resided who could afford it, was brilliantly illuminated. The whole people were infected, and the patriotic interest manifested on the occasion goes to show that the hearts of the white men of Mecklenburg are true to the best interest of the State.

The scenes transacted on Thursday last will long dwell in the hearts of the citizens. That glorious uprising of freemen will long be remembered—and with the patriotic reminiscences much of the amusing will remain, elicited by the many ludicrously illustrated transparencies—none of which afforded more merriment than the triangular box representing Holden's last ride and the result of scalawagism.—From every quarter its presence was greeted with bursts of applause."

DISTRICT CONVENTION IN EDENTON—NOMINATIONS, SPEECHES, &c.—GLORIOUS ENTHUSIASM—THE EAST ALIVE!

EDENTON, April 10th, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The Conservative Convention, which assembled at this place, on Tuesday, was a decided success, despite the bad weather and the difficulties in travelling. Eight counties (all of the Judicial District) were represented, and all of the others would have been, but for the short notice given by the Committee.

After full deliberation and a cordial interchange of opinion, Henry A. Gilliam, of Chowan, was unanimously nominated for Congress, Mills L. Eure, of Gates, for Solicitor, and Henry Willey, of Gates, and Dr. F. M. Mullen, of Camden, for the Senate.

Messrs. M. W. Rapsom, D. M. Carter, P. H. Winston and R. H. Smithare delegates to the New York Convention, and Messrs. Aug. M. Moore, P. T. Henry, J. M. Wheelbee and D. D. Ferebee are alternates.

Whilst the Committee was out, Col. Jas. W. Hinton, of Norfolk, after repeated and enthusiastic calls, ascended the stand, and for more than an hour enchained his audience. His effort was a perfect success, as evidenced by the storms of applause with which he was continually greeted.

His tribute to the memory of our dead brought tears from the eyes of the sternest men, and his eulogium upon North Carolinians, his native State, conceived in most beautiful taste, and delivered with all the graces of oratory.

Major Gilliam, upon being called, accepted the nomination, and promised to use every exertion to secure the success of our ticket. He left for Washington that evening to meet French, Dick & Co., and will follow them through the District.

Hon. W. N. H. Smith was the next speaker and made a fine impression upon the entire audience. Mr. Smith always speaks well, and will do good work in this campaign. He canvasses Martin and Washington next week, and addresses a meeting at Parish's X Roads, in this County, on the 18th. He has thrown his whole soul in the good cause, and will contribute as much to its success as any man in the District.

Mr. Winston made a few remarks and promised that Bertie, with its three hundred negro majority, would give a majority for Gilliam. He exhorted the people to work and all will be well.

Col. Wm. F. Martin was the last speaker and gave entire satisfaction to his audience. His was a bold, uncompromising speech, full of fire and devotion, and produced a strong impression.

By this time it was almost dark and the Convention adjourned—every man going home with the full determination to do his entire duty in this campaign.

On the next evening, Mr. John Pool, according to announcement, addressed the people, and tried to give them many reasons why they should vote for the Constitution; but, so far as we could understand him, they all culminated in the unanswerable reason, that if this Constitution is rejected, we may get a worse one. To do Mr. Pool justice would require too long a communication, but we will say that it is very generally understood that he denounces all the Radical nominees and refuses to support them.

J. W. Albertson followed Mr. Pool, and it was amusing to see how he fumed and fussed, and bid for negro votes. Not more than a week before he was nominated by the Rads for Solicitor, he opposed the Constitution, and said that the proper condition of the negro was slavery; that they had no business in the management of affairs.

On the conclusion of his harangue, Col. S. B. Spruill ascended the stand, in response to the calls of his friends, and proceeded to give the negroes a little sketch of Mr. Pool and Mr. Albertson, and from the nervous manner of the former individual, it was evident that some allusions were far from pleasant. Messrs. Editors, the fur flew, and the best evidence of the way they were hurt, is in the fact that none of them attempted to reply, but called on one of their negro brethren, John Page, to assist them. He attempted to reply, and, after exposing his ignorance and vanity, for a while, sat down, but not until he had slandered the people of Bertie County.

We are at work in this section. We are to have a Mass Meeting on the 18th, at Parrish's X Roads, and on the 20th, at Edenton. Prominent gentlemen will address both meetings, and the people will turn out to a man.

Registration is re-opened, and we intend to register enough votes to elect our county officers, and give six hundred against the Constitution. The East is thoroughly aroused and will do her entire duty.

French, Littlefield & Co., are advertised to speak at this place to-morrow. They will be taken care of, and will leave with no very pleasant recollections of our people.

PIERO.

COLONEL R. H. COWAN.—The address of this gentleman on Wednesday evening, at the Theatre, was one of the best it was ever our good fortune to listen to. Faultless in manner, convincing in argument and eloquent in language, the orator was manifest in every sentence and word. We have never witnessed more enthusiasm, more feeling upon the part of the auditory, than was exhibited upon this occasion. Whatever may have been Col. Cowan's popularity before; whatever may have been his reputation as a popular speaker, his effort has added to both. We wish every voter in North Carolina could have listened to his eloquent statement of the issues of the contest and heard the thorough and convincing argument which he deduced therefrom. No longer doubtful would be the result—assurance would indeed be doubly assured.

We hope Col. Cowan will find time to respond favorably to the many invitations which have been extended to him. None can listen to his eloquent and elegant speeches and not be moved, for his reasoning goes directly to the mind as do his appeals to the heart. North Carolina will be benefitted by his labors, and he cannot be indifferent to her necessities.

We take the foregoing handsome compliment to Col. Robert H. Cowan from the Wilmington Journal. Every word of it, we are sure, is amply merited. We should be delighted to hear Col. Cowan up here, and, in behalf of the Conservatives of Raleigh, we hereby invite him to address our Club some evening between this and the election. Will he not come? We will give him a crowded house, and the ladies, we are sure, will turn out in numbers to greet him. That is an inducement, which the gallant Col, cannot resist, we know.

"VOTE for the Constitution, and you vote for Free Schools," says the Wilmington Post (Radical.) Exactly, schools which are "free" to white and negro children indiscriminately!

THE WARRENTON Courier says that the Radical candidate for Sheriff in Warren "can't recognize his own signature five minutes after it is scratched."

Speakers of great ability and popularity will deliver addresses on the vital issues of the day. Come, Conservatives, one and all!

There will be a meeting of the Club at the Court House, on Wednesday evening, the 15th. inst. Speeches may be expected from the Hon. Silas H. Rogers, and others. Let us have a glorious rally of the Conservatives of Raleigh.

MR. ATKINSON'S SERMON.—Notwithstanding the dropping of rain, and the dark and cloudy night, a large congregation assembled at the Presbyterian Church, on Sunday evening last, to hear the sermon to young men, delivered at the solicitation of the Young Men's Christain Association of the city, by the Rev. Joseph M. Atkinson.

The text was in the Epistle of Paul to Titus, 2nd chapter and 6th verse: "Young men, likewise, exhort to be sober minded." The theme and the discussion were eminently appropriate to the occasion. The reverend orator dwelt with earnestness on the reasons for sobriety of mind in the young; and then, more briefly, pointing out the methods by which that sobriety of mind may be attained, he closed with a deeply serious address to the young, and a pointed and fervent appeal to parents.

The discourse was nearly an hour in length, and was delivered with animation and spirit throughout.

EASTER SERVICES.—The Easter Services in Christ Church, (Episcopal,) in this City, on Sunday, were of a very impressive character. The altar, desk and pulpit were richly dressed with flowers,—those exquisite emblems of the new life of nature and beautiful types of resurrection. The music was particularly fine, and an able and appropriate discourse was preached by the Rector.

Y. M. C. A.—The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held this (Tuesday) evening, at half past seven o'clock, at the Lecture Room of the Presbyterian Church.

This is the annual meeting for the election of officers, and a prompt attendance of all the members is earnestly desired.

MEMORIAL SEWING ASSOCIATION.—We are requested to state that there will be a meeting of the Sewing Society connected with the Memorial Association, at the residence of the President, Mrs. H. S. Smith, to-morrow (Wednesday) morning, at 11 o'clock.

REGISTRATION IN GRANVILLE.—Registration in Granville for the five days exhibits a gain of 245 on the white vote, as follows:

1st Board,	85	white maj.
2d "	100	" "
3d "	60	" "

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN.—We regret to announce the discontinuance, for reasons imperative upon the Proprietor, of this paper. Maj. Hearne's Card was received at too late an hour for insertion in this issue. He leaves the city to engage in business elsewhere, and we wish him all success and prosperity.

BARBECUE AT SPIKES'.—We are glad to learn that there will be a Conservative Barbecue at Spikes', on Monday, (the day before the election.) Ample preparations are making and good speaking may be expected. We trust that there will be a general turn-out of the people.

HON. D. G. FOWLE.—We are gratified at being able to state that Judge Fowle will be present at the meeting in Hillsboro', on Saturday, and, if possible, at that in Henderson, on Friday.

Good News From All Quarters!

WHITE MEN ASTIR!!

EXTRACTS FROM LETTERS.

WINDSOR, April 10.

"Bertie is awaking and will poll a very handsome vote against the Constitution, and a large vote against Holden. P. H. Winston, Jr., is canvassing the county ably and effectively. Bertie will surprise you."

LUMBERTON, April 10.

"Registration is going on at this place. Two old men came in to-day to register, who had not been to the village in 18 years—one of them the oldest man in the county. If all white men would do likewise! Old Dr. Thomas, "The Walking Bureau," the "Fighting Parson," and Hayes are spreading themselves. Old Thomas is not attending to his business, but off through the country making speeches to negroes. I heard Sinclair urging negroes to register, who were not more than 14 years old, from appearance. If we can defeat Holden and his scallawags, it will be glory enough for one day."

MUNROE, Union Co., April 9.

"The prospect, for the rejection of the Yankee-negro Constitution, in this section, is bright and hourly growing brighter.—The "mountains are afire," and the poor white men are rousing up in honest and earnest indignation against the infamous and degrading fraud attempted to be imposed upon them by negro-loving and office-seeking demagogues. They are leaving the Loyal Leagues, like rats from a sinking ship, and some, who still cling to that secret clan, declare they will vote to reject it.—Many Loyal Leaguers have publicly withdrawn and denounced the party here as a deceptive, swindling concern, intended to cheat honest men and gull fools to their degradation and ruin. They say they regret having been betrayed into such an unprincipled party, warn others against it, and feel more respectable when they get out of it. In short, all through this country, there is a panic in their hosts, and we calculate on beating down Holden and the Radical Constitution by 25,000 majority."

LILESVILLE, ANSON Co., April 7.

"Our people are aroused and Anson will do her duty. Dargan, Bennett, Smith, and all are doing well."

PITTSBORO, April 8.

"Chatham will go against the Constitution by a handsome majority."

OUR CONGRESSIONAL TICKET.

The Conservative ticket for Congress has been made up in this State. It is one of which the Conservatives may be proud.—Give them a rousing vote!

1st Dist.—	Henry A. Gilliam, of Chowan,
2d "	Thos. S. Kenan, of Duplin,
3d "	Thos. C. Fuller, of Cumberland,
4th "	Samuel T. Williams, Granville,
5th "	David F. Caldwell, of Guilford,
6th "	Nathaniel Boyden, of Rowan,
7th "	Burgess S. Gaither, of Burke.

COL. W. R. ROBMAN.—We have just received a letter from this gentleman, demurring to certain strictures of the Sentinel. We will look over it and see exactly what is the gist of his complaints, by to morrow, if possible. One thing is certain: We do admit the right of Radical candidates to the use of our columns, except for the simple correction of manifest injustice done them by ourselves. They have made their beds and they must lie on them.

WE are gratified to see that the Wadesboro' Argus has not been suspended, notwithstanding the destruction of the office and most of the material by fire. We commend friend Darley's energy. May it be amply rewarded! The Argus is an excellent journal and deserves every encouragement.

CORRECTION.—By the omission of a line, on yesterday, we were made to say, in giving an account of the Edenton Convention, that Henry A. Gilliam, Esq., was nominated for Solicitor; whereas we intended to say that Mr. Gilliam was nominated for Congress and M. L. Eure, Esq., for Solicitor. Both nominations are first-rate. See the letter of our correspondent, in another column.

Col. O. H. Dockery (late C. S. A.) made an inflammatory harangue to the negroes of Wilmington, a few nights since. As if he had not already gotten sufficiently low, he was introduced to his Congo audience by old Pilgrim Ashley! Little D. S. Russell also orated. He looked so wise that his sable hearers expected better things from him than they got.

THE WARRENTON Courier says that Warren will poll one hundred more votes against the infamous Constitution than there are white registered voters in the county.—Good for the land of Macon!

THE WILMINGTON POST (Radical) cautions the public against Northern "Gift Enterprises." The most swindling concern of the sort, that we know, is the U. L. A., wherein votes are bought for the promised "gift" of "forty acres and a mule."

THE ROANOKE News, speaking of the manner in which registration has been carried on in Halifax, under the auspices of Radical and negro Registrars, says that "negro boys have suddenly jumped to the importance of 'manhood.'"

WE LEARN that Judge was much mortified at the cold reception he met with in Raleigh, and expressed his disappointment that so few white men turned out to hear his Radical harangue. He has chosen his own company; let him be satisfied with it.

SPEAKING IN RALEIGH.—It is the purpose of the Conservative County candidates to address the people of Raleigh, on next Monday night, at the Court House.

THE Roanoke News wonders if Gen. Littlefield was a "bummer."

A HAIL STORM in Charlotte on Friday.—The weather here is decidedly cold.

VOTE DOWN THE NEW CONSTITUTION!

We have heard no sound reason given by any man for voting for the new Constitution. The agents employed in drafting it were not such men as enjoy the confidence of the people of North Carolina.—Many of them were grossly ignorant and men of bad, vicious characters. The Northern men, who were chiefly employed in its manipulation and framing, were not such as are regarded by our citizens as either intelligent enough, or sufficiently identified with the interests of the State, to be the framers of our organic law.

Northern gentlemen, who are intelligent, considerate and respectable, so far as we know their opinions, look upon the Northern men, who are stumping the State and seeking office, with contempt. They regard such conduct as impertinent, immodest and disgusting. Without influence at home, they have come down into North Carolina and proffered their services to the people of this State, as if our people were too ignorant to weigh their demerits or too blind properly to estimate their impudence and effrontery. Such men should be kept out of our public councils and scouted by the community. Let such counterfeits be nailed to the counter. They are mar-plots in the communities in which they reside, and unworthy to be set down as representative men in North Carolina.

WE ARE pleased to learn that our young friends, Thos. P. Devereux and George H. Snow, acquitted themselves so handsomely at Earpsboro, on Saturday. They are both young men of promise. Their speeches are said to have been most favorably received and to have been excellent in matter and manner.

SENSIBLE.—James Ransom, (negro,) who was nominated by the "Republican party" for the House of Representatives (so-called) in Warren, declines the "honor." He says that he is engaged in Coach making, and flatters himself that he is better prepared for that than for law making.

NEGRO MASONRY.

EDITORS SENTINEL:

Gentlemen:—I see in your paper, that you notice the fact that a negro Masonic Lodge has been established in this city, "under a dispensation from the Grand Lodge of New York."

In order that those who read your paper may not be deceived, I beg leave to state that the Grand Lodge of New York does not recoguize negro Lodges; and in the second place, the Grand Lodge nor the Grand Master of New York would presume to grant a dispensation to either white or black Masons to organize Lodges outside of that State.

The Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of New York, with whom I have the honor of a personal acquaintance, in a letter addressed to a brother Mason in this State, some months since, positively denies that the Grand Lodge of New York has anything to do with these negro Lodges, and that there are no negro Lodges recognized by the Grand Lodge of New York.

There are, however, clandestine Lodges in New York and other States, entirely under the control of negroes, but they are not recognized in any way by the legally initiated. They are harmless to true Masonry, and can never become affiliated. Every Mason knows that the negroes of the South do not possess even the very first requisite to be made Masons.

Masonry is the same North and South, East and West, and there are none who would change it if they could, or could change it if they would. Founded by the wise King of Israel, at the building of the Temple, nearly 3,000 years ago, its principles have continued the same through all the darkages and days of persecution, are the same to day, and will continue to be the same until the sun shall cease to illumine the day.

Very respectfully,

A MASON.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

NOTES FROM YADKIN.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—In compliance with a previous call, a large number of our citizens assembled at Mt. Nebo, on the 3rd. instant, to hear a discussion on the "situation."

The morning was rainy and disagreeably cold, but about noon the clouds yielded some what to sunshine, and we were able to listen with some comfort.

Mr. Marler, who was turned out of "Daddy Cowles'" family, because he wouldn't eat and sleep with the niggers, made a fine impression by the able manner in which he presented the ruinous consequences which must inevitably follow the ratification of that blasphemous paper, the new Constitution, which, in the face of imbeciles and idiots, declares "all men created equal."—He showed that the new system of taxation would be insupportable; that the government should seek to relieve the people, instead of oppressing them by increase of offices and pay, and consequently increased taxation. His position was clearly sustained by undeniable facts and figures. He proved from the Constitution itself that negro equality in the school, the theater ground, the camp, and everywhere, would follow its ratification. His propositions were clear, his arguments convincing and his conclusions just.

He was followed by "Sandy Vestal," an ex-Legislator and Radical oracle in this county, whose entire speech was filled up with vituperation and bold assertions, positively necessitated by the scarcity of an argument. He declaimed against secession telling what it had done for the country, and warning the people against the Conservative leaders.

A. N. Smith, a young lawyer of this county, then came forward and showed conclusively that slavery and secession were dead issues, and that such an appeal was a low trick to arouse the passions of the people; that those who resort to such means are like the hyena, which prowls about graveyards, digs up the dead bodies, and then smells like the putrid carcass which it exhumes and devours. The immaculate "Tandy," who declared he would oppose negro suffrage from "hell to Boston," has recently become the champion of the colored race, and so great is his fondness for it, that a good, simple minded old lady was induced to ask him, "You're going to marry a nigger, ain't you?"

Since the opening of the campaign, Messrs. Dobson and Andrew Cowles, and others, have taken into line, and are fighting the new Constitution vigorously and successfully.

Yours Truly,

YADKIN.

The SUCCESS of the white men of North Carolina, on the 21st. of April, is a CERTAINTY, if they will all VOTE, as we believe they will.

NORTH CAROLINA.

This Constitution of North Carolina is to be voted on upon the 21st. of this month. As we remarked before, the instrument does not emanate from the white population of North Carolina. It is the work of negroes and alien adventurers, and was expressly designed to perpetuate their ascendancy.—Every negro, therefore, is allowed to vote. Even crime is no disqualification. And every negro voter is eligible to the jury box. This doctrine of negro equality runs through the Constitution, and under it the races are to be commingled at the public schools, at the State University, in churches, public hotels and assemblages, and in the militia. All this is matter of law and obligation, according to the principles of this Constitution. Such are the abhorrent features of this government, which it is proposed to fasten on the whites of North Carolina.—Have we any right to expect social order, peace, or submission to the authority of Government, when such degradation is inflicted upon the population?

If there was any doubt as to the intent of this Constitution, it is supplied by the votes of the Convention which framed it. We find that it was proposed that white and black children should not go to the same schools; that they should not intermarry; that whites and blacks should not muster in the same company, and that black officers should not command white men; that poor white children should not be bound to negroes; that marriages between whites and blacks should always remain void; but all these propositions were contemptuously rejected. The great ambition of the negro is, to be on terms of complete social equality with the white race, and they insisted upon these conditions.

This Constitution we may hereafter examine more in detail. The above are its more salient iniquities. Its aim is entire equality for the negro, amalgamation, intimacy of the children, negro office holders, jurors, magistrates, sheriffs, police, and tax assessors. There is nothing that makes life valuable that is not to be held subject to the degrading contact or oppression of the African race. It is a bold and daring conspiracy against the property, the intelligence, and the manhood of this people. As a measure of malignity, the Constitutions, such as we have seen framed in Arkansas, Alabama, and North Carolina, surpass anything that could be expected from fiends.

And yet we are told by the Radical papers that there is discontent, "disloyalty" in the South; the whigs are "rebellious" &c. They fret and are restive at the prospect, nay, at the actual infliction of this ruin, shame, and unutterable humiliation of negro equality and negro rule. Is it strange—this spirit of resistance to negro rule? Is it not the instinct of white blood stronger than all reconstruction laws; stronger than Republican platforms; stronger than the bayonets which are used to enforce this cruel wrong and bondage? It is exactly the same spirit which made the white race in New York defeat the Republican party by nearly fifty thousand votes, because it was rotten on the question of negro suffrage; which has made the Republican Legislature in Pennsylvania refuse even to submit the matter to a vote of the people, and which has found voice and expression in Kansas, in Ohio, in Michigan—in every Northern State where the people have been called upon to endure this infamy. Can we wonder that the South, even in the presence of bayonets, resents to the last this scourge?

Let it be noted that all through that broad land there is not a man who has a thought or purpose of disunion. There is not one who does not accept as final and irrevocable the Union of the States. It is against negro government and negro equality, and not against the Union or the flag, that they agitate, and, if you please, conspire and resist. With, against this proposition human nature itself revolts, and extermination is your only remedy. The people of Alabama and the South ask only the same institutions as those which exist in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and New York. Their offence hath that extent—no more. There is not a just or humane man who will not pronounce that to threaten them with the sword, because they refuse to obey a negro dynasty, is a suggestion fit only for monsters in human shape.

The people of the country see that the policy of Radicalism is not peace, but the sword. Their policy conducts to violence, to a war of races, to further ruin and misery and bloodshed, to a repudiation of the national debt, to retrogression in everything that goes to make a nation great. It lives only by strife. To vote down this vile conspiracy for power—whose means are negro equality, bloodshed, and civil war—is the first duty of the hour, and no man is excusable who hesitates to do his part in this good and necessary work.—National Intelligencer.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN WATAUGA.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee for the County of Watauga, North Carolina, in which many of the citizens participated, for the purpose of nominating candidates for county offices, the following resolutions, offered by Col. Wm. Horton, were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we do hereby express our cordial approbation of the nominations recently made by the Conservative Executive Commitee for State officers, and will use every fair and honorable means in our power to secure the success of said ticket.

Resolved, That the thanks of the friends of Constitutional liberty throughout the State are due and are hereby tendered, on the part of the Conservatives of Watauga county, to the small but gallant band of Conservative delegates of the late "Constitutional Convention," so-called, for their prompt action; especially to Messrs. Durham, of Cleaveland, Graham, of Orange, and others, for the bold and fearless manner in which they met and combatted, though unsuccessfully, the diabolical schemes of the radicals.

WM HORTON, Secretary.

IMPEACHMENT NOTES.—Lieutenant-General Sherman, who occupied a seat by Senator Doolittle, never once took his eyes off Mr. Curtis. When the language of Senator Sherman, in the debate on the tenure-of-office bill, that the bill had no reference to the Cabinet officers of Mr. Johnson, was quoted, General Sherman looked hard at his brother and the latter cast down his eyes. The venerable Thomas Ewing, whose nomination to succeed Mr. Stanton is yet unacted on in the Senate, sat on the other side of Senator Doolittle, and seemed particularly interested in the allusion to the debate of last winter.—Sun.

MR. JOHNSON'S CHANCES.—A very intelligent Radical, who is on terms of great intimacy with many Radical Senators, remarked: "Curtis is delivering a great speech, but it might as well be addressed to the Pawnee Indians—the case is judged now." And such seems to be the opinion entertained in well-informed circles here of both parties, despite all the attempts made to create a different impression. Under that terrible influence of party pressure, the backbones of those senators which needed "stiffening" are being gradually braced up, and no fears are entertained that they will be able to "toe the mark when the day of pronouncing the verdict rolls round.—Q., in Sun.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

THE MEETING AT EARPSBORO'.

EARPSBORO', N. C., April 11.

Editors Sentinel:—The mass meeting of the Conservatives at Earpsboro', to-day, was a splendid success. There was a large turn out of the people of old Johnston.—The speeches produced the finest effect.

Two young gentlemen from Wake, Messrs. T. P. Devereux and G. H. Snow, opened the ball and did themselves much credit.—They are both promising young men and acquitted themselves finely.

S. T. Williams, Esq., the Conservative nominee for Congress, spoke, for about an hour, in a powerful and eloquent effort, and I have never seen an audience more attentive or more highly pleased. Mr. Williams is one of the best speakers of his age in the State, and his remarks elicited profound admiration. It was eloquent, and, at the same time, logical and argumentative.

Hon. Daniel G. Fowle, of Raleigh, followed Mr. Williams. He commenced in an animated manner, and, from the beginning to the end of his speech, he enchanted all his hearers. He showed the character of the men, who had been nominated by the Radicals, and exposed the hideous Constitution in all its nakedness. When Judge Fowle finished his speech, no white man could be found, on that ground, who would advocate Radicalism. The hesitating and doubtful were all convinced and everybody came out against the infamous Constitution. Judge Fowle endeared himself to us all by his noble effort.

Ashe and anti-Constitution will carry Johnson by 500 majority. All the true men in the county are becoming a unit.

GENERAL MEADE'S PROCLAMATION AGAINST INCENDIARIES.

"How sharper than a serpent's tooth" it must be to the radical managers, that they cannot get a general to take charge of any military district who knows exactly when he ought to be blind and when he ought to see. Now here is General Meade—a most provoking person. He did gratifying things at first, and radicalism was loud in its applause. Scarcely, however, had the radicals committed themselves to positive laudations of the General's honest courses than he made a report in relation to the election on the constitution, and plainly told his sponsors in Washington that the trouble was a little too much nigger, and that if they had been content to require no more in the constitution than was required in the reconstruction acts all would have been well. That was under the fifth rib. But there is a worse place than the fifth rib. It is what the French philosophers call the vital knot; and Gen. Meade has just put forth a proclamation that lays violent hands on this delicate thing. He says: "All public writers and speakers are enjoined to refrain from inflammatory appeals to the passions and prejudices of the people." Now, this will absolutely shut up every orator that the republican party has in its pay in Gen. Meade's district. General Meade also practically orders the suppression of an organization whose object is to "affect the results of pending elections in this district." This means the Loyal League clubs. It has been stated that this order was aimed at the Ku Klux Klan; but this is evidently wrong, as it so distinctly describes the evil courses of radical agitation. Gen. Meade is too intelligent a man not to have known what he was proclaiming.—N. Y. Herald.

Good!—We hear of a white man going home and telling his wife that he was chosen a radical candidate for office, whereupon she told him plainly that if he supported that cause he could no longer sleep in her bed! A Spartan wife, that! Of course the husband backed down.—Milton Chronicle.

A colored lawyer, after long argument, has been denied admission to the bar of a Pittsburg court.

WHICH IS BETTER, a system of State government, devised by Gaston, Macon, Daniel, Morehead, and other North Carolina patriots, or a system devised by New England adventurers, based upon Yankee notions and prejudices, adapted to New England wants, and adopted by scallawags and negroes?

THEN.

"WHO WILL PLOT FOR THE HEADS OF ABE LINCOLN AND GEN. SCOTT?"—W. W. Holden, June 5th, 1861.

NOW.

"Our beloved State will once more put on the garments of prosperity; and our people will be contented and happy through the long ages reserved for the existence of the government which Washington established, and which LINCOLN labored and died to preserve!

Fraternally yours,

W. W. HOLDEN, President.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

CONGRESS—IMPEACHMENT.

WASHINGTON, April 13, P. M.

A motion to amend the rules, to allow additional speeches, was tabled. Stevens, Williams, Boutwell and Logan are disappointed. Stevens and Williams made special appeals for a hearing.

Gen. Sherman was re-called. Stanbery asked whether, after Stanton's restoration, the good of the service required another man than Stanton at the head of the War Department?

Butler objected.

Bingham said if Sherman's opinion was given, fifty thousand other men's opinions might be called.

Butler spoke at length; he warned Senators that to-morrow's struggle would be renewed to-day.

Several questions were asked by the Senators and a general debate ensued.

Mr. Evarts said they desired to show that the President's action was for the good of the service, based on the opinions of honest, intelligent officers.

The Senate refused to hear the answer. Yeas only fifteen. Davis voted nay. Sprague and Saulsbury were absent. Fowler, Grimes, Ross, Trumbull and Van Winkle voted aye.

Senator Johnson asked: Did you, at any time, and when, before Stanton's removal, advise the President to appoint another person?

Butler objected.

Chase decided that the question propounded by the Senator could only be objected to by the Court.

Drake objected

The Senate refused to hear the answer—18 to 22. The Republicans voting aye were Anthony, Edmunds, Fessenden, Fowler, Grimes, Henderson, Ross, Trumbull, Van Winckle.

The Clerk of the District Supreme Court was called

Sherman recalled at the instance of Senator Johnson, who asked, when the President tendered you the office of Secretary of War, on the 28th, or 30th, of January, did he state what his purpose in so doing was? Objection, but the Senate heard the answer—26 to 22.

The answer was yes.

Senator Johnson asked, will you state what he said his purpose was?

Objection. Chase decided the question admissible, as it tended to show the import of the President's action.

Chase was sustained, 26 to 22.

Sherman commenced, when Butler interrupted, but Sherman thought best to proceed in his own way.

The President told Sherman that, under the relation of Stanton towards other members of the Cabinet, and as he could not have the War Department administered properly, in the interest of the army and the whole country, while Stanton remained Secretary, and in a desire to promote and care for those interests, the President tendered Sherman the position of Secretary of War. Sherman asked the President why he did not have the case made out, by his lawyers, so as to bring about the change, without involving the witness, as an officer of the army, in the matter. The President replied that it could not be done, but if it could be brought before the Court, Stanton's case would not stand an hour.

Stanbery asked a question, and Butler objected.

Chase ruled that Stanbery could ask relative to facts elicited by Senator Johnson's questions. Appeal.

A debate ensued, pending which Butler asked whether the question put by the Senator from Maryland was as counsel for the President.

Mr. Johnson rose from his seat and administered Butler a severe rebuke, and Butler was abashed and ill.

Sherman proceeded. At the first interview nothing very definite was said by either. During the second, the President expressed a desire to have the constitutionality of the Tenure of Office bill tested. He told Sherman that Stanton would offer no resistance. Sherman did not know Stanton as well as the President knew him.—Stanton is a coward. Sherman gave no positive answer, but answered in writing.

"Did the President, on either occasion, express a firm determination to remove Stanton from office."

Sherman answered: The President never expressed his intention to use force, but seemed to understand that their reliance should cease.

Senator Howard asked what did the President say about force?

Sherman repeated, the President's belief that Stanton would not resist.

Henderson asked whether Sherman gave the President advice?

The Managers summoned Sherman for to-morrow and he left the stand.

The evidence regarding Thomas' arrest was resumed and the Court adjourned.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, April 13, P. M.

An article was adopted, fixing the legal rate of interest, at six per cent; but allowing special contracts at six per cent.

Article Nothing was adopted—same as the old Constitution—except the word "white," is stricken out. The Convention will probably adjourn to-morrow.

C. M. Bolton a colored member of the Convention, has announced himself a candidate for Congress in the 1st District.

ORDER FROM GENERAL CANBY.

HEDQ'RS 2ND MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., April 6, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS
No. 61.

The Commanding General has received information from different sections of the States of North Carolina and South Carolina, and from members of both political parties, that combinations have been formed, or are now being formed, to prevent, delay or hinder the execution of the laws of the United States, or by force, intimidation or threat to prevent persons from accepting or executing the duties of any office or employment under the United States, at the elections to be held under the authority of the law of March 2 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," and the laws that are supplementary thereto. While he is satisfied that these complaints apply to a few persons only of both parties, it is proper that all such persons should be warned that any attempt by force to prevent, hinder or delay the execution of the laws of the United States, under the authority of which the said election is ordered, or by force, intimidation or threat to prevent any person from accepting or holding any office, or trust, or place of confidence under the United States, as Registrar, Superintendent, Judge, Manager, Inspector or Clerk, or other employment at said election, will be amenable, not only to the penalties prescribed under the authority of the said laws, but for violation of the Act of Congress "to define and punish certain conspiracies," approved July 31, 1861. (Statutes at Large, Volume 12, Chapter XXXIII.)

It is the duty of the civil and military authorities in both States to secure to every registered voter the full and free exercise of his right of suffrage, and this duty must be fully, faithfully and impartially performed, and the Commanding General confidently expects that the people of these States will unite in securing for each other the full and proper exercise of this franchise. But if in any District or County, or polling subdivision of either State, the election should be prevented, or the ballot-boxes or poll-lists should be destroyed, or the electors duly registered under the laws of the United States should be prevented by force or intimidation from voting, a new election will be ordered for such District, county or polling subdivision.

To the end that the laws of the United States may be duly executed; that the officers charged with conducting the elections may be protected in the discharge of their duties, and that the qualified electors may be protected in the exercise of the elective franchise, Commanders of Posts are authorized, whenever in their judgment it may be necessary, to appoint, from the officers of the army or the Freedmen's Bureau, under their command, Military C[illegible] ers for Districts or counties with[illegible] torial limits of their commands [illegible] remote from their headquarters that the powers conferred upon Post Commanders cannot be immediately or directly exercised.

The Military Commissioners so appointed are invested with all the powers of the Justices of the Peace of Districts or Counties, or the police magistrates of cities, and will be governed in the execution of their duties by the laws of the State in which they may be serving, except so far as these laws may be in conflict with the laws of the United States or with the orders issued from the Headquarters of this District; and, in addition to any troops that may be placed at their disposal, are given the command of the police force of Districts, Counties, cities and towns; and all police officers, sheriffs, constables, and other peace officers, are required to obey and execute the orders of the Military Commissioners in all such cases.

The Military Commissioners will promptly report all cases in which they assume jurisdiction, and the disposition made in each case. When parties are held for trial, either in confinement or under bail, the case will be so fully reported as to enable the Commanding General to decide whether it shall be tried by a military tribunal or be brought before a civil court.

The jurisdiction herein given to the Military Commissioners will be determined and limited by the authority heretofore delegated to Post Commanders by General Orders No. 32, of May 30, 1867, and General Orders No. 145, of December 6, 1867, and will not be considered as extending to the inhabitants in their ordinary personal relations, unless the civil authorities should refuse or fail to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to give all rightful protection to persons and property; and all persons, whether in authority or not, are required to obey and execute all lawful orders of the Military Commissioners to the same extent and in the same manner that they are required by law to obey and execute the writs of the civil magistrates.

Some of the complaints that have reached the Commanding General apply to colored voters of the two States, and to sections where they have the numerical ascendancy. To them it is proper to say that the elective franchise conferred upon them by law, carries with it no authority to restrict others in the free exercise of that right; and that while it is their duty not to regard threats or intimidations as to themselves, any combinations to prevent by force, intimidation or threats the same free exercise of this right by others will be unlawful, and will subject the offenders to the penalties prescribed by law and by military orders.—They are counselled to exercise the right of voting in a quiet and orderly manner, giving offence to no one; and after casting their votes, not to linger about the polling places, but to return quietly to their homes and to their customary avocations.

Commanding Officers will give as wide a circulation as possible to this order within the limits of their commands.

By command of Brevet Major General Ed. R. S. Canby.

LOUIS V. CAZIARC,

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
Charleston, S. C., March 23, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS,
NO. 45.

The Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," having framed a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of the aforecited laws; and having by an ordinance adopted on the 17th day of March, 1868, provided that the said Constitution shall be submitted "for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this Act [March 23, 1867, Section 4] at an election to be conducted by the officers appointed or to be appointed by the Commanding General as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days after the notice thereof to be given by the said Convention;" and having further provided, by the aforesaid ordinance, that at the same time an election shall be held for Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly, and for all State and County officers who are to be elected by the people under this Constitution, and further, that in each Congressional District of the State an election shall be held for a member of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress. It is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 21st day of April, and ending on Thursday the 23d day of April, 1868, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For Constitution" or "Against Constitution," and also on the same ballot for the State and County officers and for members of the United States House of Representatives, as specified in the before cited ordinance.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days, the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the lists, and such persons shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such lists the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts, who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists, the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2, 1867 and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the supplementary Act of July 19, 1867.

Fourth. Any duly registered voter of this State who may have removed from the County in which he was registered, shall be entitled to vote in the County to which he has removed and has resided for the ten days next preceding this election, upon presentation of a certificate of registration from the County in which he was originally registered, or upon his affidavit or other satisfactory evidence that he was so registered, and that he has not voted at this election. It shall be the duty of the Registrars, upon the application of any duly registered voter who has removed or is about to remove from the precinct in which he was originally registered, to furnish him with a certificate that he was so registered, and to note the fact in the registration books of the precinct. In default of the certificate, the affidavit of the voter must set forth the County and precinct in which he was originally registered and the length of time he has resided in the County in which he desires to vote. In doubtful cases, the Registrars or Inspectors of election shall require such additional evidence as may be necessary to satisfy them that the applicant is legally entitled to vote. When Seems by the certificate and the affidavit [illegible] will be furnished the [illegible] at the opening of election, and when used will be attached to the ballots cast by such voters, and will be transmitted to District Headquarters with the returns required by law.

Fifth. The said election will be held in each County at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at each voting place at six o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Eighth. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election to any office to be filled at this election, shall serve as a Judge or Inspector of Election in any precinct which he seeks to represent.

Ninth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of Election, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of such County is empowered and directed to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers to the other polling places as may in his judgment best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Tenth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited; and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of Elections, to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority. The exhibition or carrying of deadly weapons in violation of General Orders No. 10, of 1867, at or in the vicinity of any polling places during the election herein ordered, will be regarded and treated as an additional offence.

Eleventh. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from six o'clock of the evening of the 20th of April, until six o'clock of the morning of the 24th of April, 1868, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other police officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Twelfth. Military interference with elections, unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Thirteenth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several Registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.
